
Media consent form

Use this before filming or photographing anyone for Sats On The Road. Keep a signed copy, or record the verbal consent script out loud on camera for people who do not read or write. Offer the face-blur option to everyone, and honour it.

This form is in English and French. Translate it into the local language before each leg (see ../translations).

English

What this is. Sats On The Road is a free Bitcoin education trip by BitKwa. We sometimes film and photograph our sessions to share the story and teach others.

Your choice. You do not have to be filmed to take part in the training. Taking part does not depend on this.

Please tick:

- ☐ Yes, you may film/photograph me and show it publicly.
- ☐ Yes, but blur my face / do not show my face.
- ☐ Audio only, do not show me.
- ☐ No, please do not film or photograph me.

You can change your mind. If you later want your image removed, contact us and we will remove it from material we control. Email: [\[CONFIRM: contact email\]](mailto:contact@satsontheroad.org).

We will not film your wallet screen, seed phrase, balance or anything that could put your money or safety at risk.

Verbal consent script (for people who do not read)

Read this aloud, in the local language, and record the person's spoken answer.

"We are filming a free Bitcoin lesson. May we include you in the video? You do not have to say yes, and you can still join the lesson either way. We can also blur your face so no one recognises you. Would you like: to be shown, to have your face blurred, or not to be filmed? You can change your mind later and we will take it out."

Record: name or "declined to give name", town, and the choice they made.

Treat everyone in the footage the way you would want your own family treated.

When in doubt, blur it or leave it out. See the
